

I am opposed to the FCC implementing any new law that would lessen the protection I receive under the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.

Since this law came into effect, I rarely receive calls from unwanted solicitors. I now receive less than one call per month. Before this law, I received multiple unwanted calls every single night after work and they always interrupted my dinner. The difference has been incredible!

Please reconsider passing a law that would change the effectiveness of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.